Elephant's Artists to Watch in 2025

20 Jan 2025

The editorial team at Elephant has scoured the globe to bring you the artists we want you to know about as we begin the new year. We have chosen artists based on their accomplishments in 2024 and their rumoured plans for 2025, but we have also gone on instinct and selected some of our personal favourites, too. Who knows? Maybe you'll discover your new favourite artist this year. We certainly hope so.

Brook Hsu

Age: 38

Born/Based in: Pullman, Washington/New York and Wyoming

Brook Hsu grew up in Oklahoma, and her home state is often portrayed in her works. Through her verdant lens, ghostly renderings of Buffalo Bill's problematic Wild West Shows can be seen behind a characteristic green foreground, and skeletons and rabbits hide in greenery.
